Just for Today

Starting over

A business that is run on impulse will disappear as fast as the whim that created it.

Just for today: have a plan that you will work for the next 12 months and stick to it. It takes at least 6 months to know whether it was a good idea or not, but if you make it up as you go along, or keep changing focus, you'll always be starting over. Impulses can be filed away for next year.
