Workshop: Power Language for Women: Empower, Enrich and Enjoy

Power Language for Women

Workshop Duration: 3 hours

Workshop Description

If you want to know how powerful you are, try giving someone else's dog a command!

Chances are, you've been raised to "be a lady", to speak softly, smile a lot and, above all, to be cooperative - but in real life, that usually means ignored and stepped over. Consciously and sub-consciously we telegraph our limiting beliefs through our choice of words.

It's time to take back your power! That can be done easily and immediately by using the right words, body language and mindset.

Who Should Attend

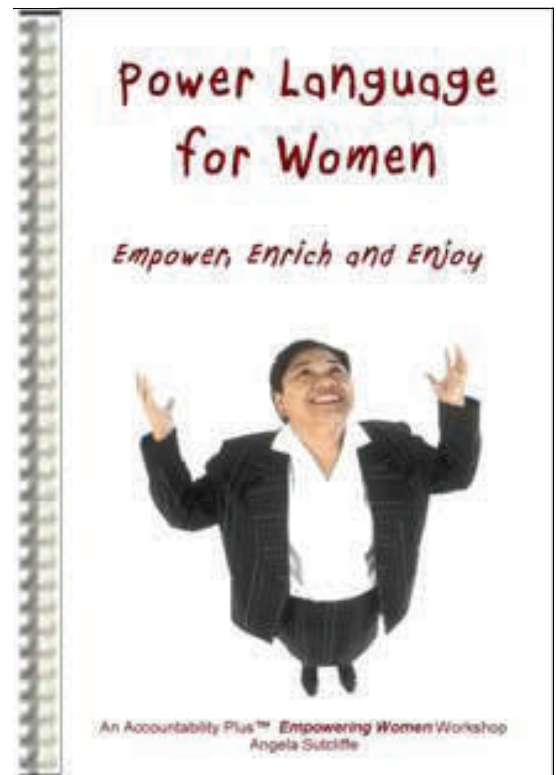

This workshop is for women who need to be "heard"; for businesswomen who want more respect and for sales professionals who want to step into their potential.

What You Will Learn

- How you unconsciously telegraph your limiting beliefs
- How to use and appreciate the power of language
- How to inform so you will be understood
- How to gain deference through professionalism

At the end of this workshop, you will be equipped to:

- Measure your true "self-worth"
- Take charge of conversations without appearing "pushy"
- Command respect
- Hold the attention of customers, clients and other decision-makers
